

2 Day Edexcel BTEC Level 2 Award in Disengagement and Non-Restrictive Physical Intervention Skills

To provide broader and enhanced skills for those people in job roles where they regularly manage conflict and who require training in physical intervention skills.

Who is the course for?

- The protective and Security Industries (door supervisors, static and patrolling security guards, court security officers, close protection officers);
- NHS Staff – Ambulance staff, A&E staff, NHS Security staff, nurses working with disturbed patients, etc.
- Staff working with Children in residential settings.
- Staff working with Adults who exhibit 'Challenging Behaviour'
- School staff, including special needs schools, teachers and nominated teaching assistants.

Entry requirements

Candidates who undertake this training must have the physical capability to undertake physical skills training and will be required to fill in a confidential medical questionnaire. Candidates must also have the ability to undertake classroom training and sit written exams.

Course structure

The BTEC Level 2 Award comprises three units of which two must be completed. They are as follows:

Unit 1: Law and Risks of Physical Intervention When Working with Children and Vulnerable Adults (10 Hours); or

Unit 2: Law and Risks of Physical Intervention for People Performing Security Functions (10 Hours)

Unit 3: Non-restrictive Methods of Disengagement and Physical Intervention (10 Hours).

Learners must complete either Unit 1 or Unit 2, plus Unit 3. Course duration

2 days (20 Hours)

How much does the course cost?

POA